OMAR KHAYYAM'S SON

Comic Artist Gallops Good Mile at Douglas Park.

"Bud" Fisher's Derby, Preakness and Oaks Candidates to Go East April 15.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 2.—Comic Artist, which, together with Mr. Mutt is being prepared at Douglas Park by trainer Alex Gordon to carry the colors of H. C. "Bud" Fisher in both the Kentucky Derby and Preakness Stakes, gave work watchers at that track Wednesday morning food for reflection when he ran a mile without any effort in 1:46, the fastest time for the distance recorded at either local track this year. The son of Omar Khayyam and Honey Bee, with Harry Goffe, his regular exercise boy, in the saddle, went about his task like a real good colt and gave abundant evidence of being possessed of the fine staying powers that characterized the performances of his sire in the Kentucky Derby and other stakes that he won. The colt sailed along at an even pace and was never permitted to have his head. He was in a running mood all the way. The watches caught him in the following fractions: 13, 25⅗, 39, 52, 1:05, 1:19, 1:33, 1:46.

Mr. Mutt and Nellie Morse, the latter a Pimlico and Kentucky Oaks candidate, were also sent a mile. The filly galloped the distance in 1:48, while Mr. Mutt's time was 1:50, Like their stablemate, neither pair were allowed to extend themselves at any portion of the way. Harry Vititoe had the leg up on Mr. Mutt, while George Eaton was astride Nellie Morse. Trainer Gordon expressed his gratification over the work of his three crack horses and scouted the opinion held by some local trainers that he is pushing their preparation beyond their ability. The track at Douglas Park was fast for the gallops and trainer Gordon declared it was in better condition for workouts than it had been since last fall.

FOR EASTERN CAMPAIGN.

Gordon has ordered express cars for April 15, when he will make two divisions of the stable, sending one to Belmont Park and the other to Pimlico. The latter division will include among others Mr. Mutt, Comic Artist and Nellie Morse. The latter is to be started in the Pimlico Oaks, decided May 7 at Pimlico, and the two colts will make their three-year-old racing debut in the Preakness May 12. After the latter race the three will be returned to Louisville to permit Comic Artist and Mr. Mutt to start in the Derby and the filly to fill her engagement in the Kentucky Oaks. Trainer Gordon is confident that Nellie Morse will capture both events for three-year-old fillies. Jockey John Merimee, the stable's rider, who has been here all winter with the horses, will accompany Gordon to Pimlico and return with him to Kentucky.

A return to springlike weather Wednesday morning served to speed up training operations at both local tracks and enabled trainers to make up for the time lost by the inclement weather of the past few days. Quite a number of meritorious moves were witnessed at Churchill Downs, where the track was also in excellent condition and the most impressive recorded was when King Gorin II. and Bourbon Boy, under the direction of Pete Coyne, were asked to traverse three-quarters at increased speed. The pair began together and, with King Gorin II. to the forefront all the way, ran the quarter in :26, half in :52, and three-quarters in 1:18. Mack Garner was astride King Gorin II. and afterward declared that the son of Golden Maxim and Yankee Tree could easily have covered the distance in 1:14. Garner, who is under contract to Coyne, will have the mount on King Gorin II. in his Derby engagement. If the colt continues to train as he has been doing he will be a sure starter in the big race, Mr. Coyne stated.

TRYING TO SECURE GARNER.

J. S. Ward, who is without a stable rider, is trying to secure Garner to pilot Wise Counsellor in both the Preakness and Kentucky Derby and he will probably succeed in getting the boy for the Pimlico stake, but will have to look elsewhere for a rider for his colt in the Derby.

Both Wise Counsellor and Worthmore were out on the Downs track Wednesday morning, but were only galloped at a slow pace. They will be given their next trial Thursday morning provided the track remains in its present good condition.

Roby Cheatham, apprentice jockey under contract to Harned Bros. & Jones, left the employ of his employers Tuesday after receiving his monthly salary, leaving a note in which he stated he was going to secure a better paying position. Trainers have been warned not to employ the boy.

Assistant starter Mickey Harris, who is schooling two-year-olds at both local tracks was busy at Douglas Park Wednesday morning educating the youngsters in barrier deportment and among the lot were the horses of Williams Brothers and the band being trained by Jack Flanigan. Harris has arranged to school at Douglas Park Wednesdays and Saturdays and at Churchill Downs the remaining days between the hours of 7 and 10 a. m. Starter William Hamilton will assume charge of the work upon his return from Bowie Monday morning.

BELMONT'S STEEPLECHASES

Five Cross-Country Stakes Recently Closed Attract Good List.

Healthy Increase Over Last Year Shown by Returns for Jumping Fixtures of 1924 Meeting.

NEW YORK, N. Y., April 2.—The five steeplechase fixtures of the Westchester Racing Association, which closed on March 24, received a bountiful entry with a generous increase in each event over last year's figures. The total of 327 for the five races as against 282 last year warrants the belief that the cross-country sport at Belmont Park the coming year will be as good as that of any previous year that can be recalled.

The presence of so many new names among the nominators is an indication of the widespread interest that is being taken in cross-country sport. Most of those who joined in the syndicate to purchase foreign jumpers last year have been generous in their entries for the Westchester features and the presence of these imported horses will give an international flavor to the sport that will make for the popularity of steeplechasing in this country.

Among the new owners whose colors will be seen in the $10,000 Brook Handicap Steeplechase, the $10,000 Charles L. Appleton Memorial Cup Steeplechase and other races at the Newmarket of America are Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt, J. Temple Gwathmey, Audley Farm, R. B. Strassburger, W. J. Salmon, A. C. Bostwick, Somerset Stable, Walter M. Jeffords, John McE. Bowman, W. R. Coe, Frederick Johnson, Salubria Stable, William A. Read, Bayard Warren, Leona Farm, Middleneck Farm, Robert L. Gerry and Mrs. Herbert L. Pratt. Mr. Gwathmey was once a power in the steeplechase world, but has raced nothing in the last couple of seasons. Audley Farm, under which B. B. and Montfort Jones race on the flat, while the Salubria Stable is the nom de course of Rear Admiral Cary T. Grayson. William A. Read is the clever young British horseman who races in partnership with Major Frank A. White.

Mr. Read is the largest nominator with a list of thirty-seven good horses engaged. The Greentree Stable comes second with thirty, followed by J. E. Widener with twenty-six; R. B. Strassburger, twenty-

PIMLICO'S CARD FOR MAY 3

$25,000 Dixie Handicap to Have Companion Piece in Green Spring Valley 'Chase.

BALTIMORE, Md., April 2.—The Maryland Jockey Club is looking forward with a feeling of sentiment to the revival at Pimlico of the Dixie Stakes, which was the first big feature of the inaugural meeting at the "Old Hilltop" in 1870, when, under the name of the Dinner Stakes, Preakness, by Lexington, won the event in the colors of M. H. Sanford.

The Dixie is a handicap for three-year-olds and over by subscription of $20 each, starters to pay $500 additional to the winner, with $25,000 added, of which $5,000 to the second, $2,000 to the third and $1,000 to the fourth; one mile and three-sixteenths.

This stake closed January 2 with 118 entries and weights were allotted on February 1, the name of every eligible horse of prominence in the country appearing on the list, including Zev, In Memoriam and My Own, the three outstanding three-year-old colts last year, with the unbeaten gelding, Sarazen, and his rival, the speedy filly Happy Thoughts also among the entries.

The Dixie will be run on Saturday, May 3, and on the same afternoon the pick of the jumjers will compete in the Green Spring Valley Steeplechase at two miles, with $5,000 added. Entries for this important cross-country event will close April 8, and every stable of note will send a representative to the post.

Previous winners of the Green Spring Valley Steeplechase from 1907, the date of its inauguration, up to and including 1923, were: M. H. Dudley's Dr. Keith; G. R. Fortesque's Goldfleur; Mr. McMurtrie's Algie in 1909 and 1910; H. K. Vingut's Waterspeed; C. R. Fleischmann's George Eno; Ral Parr's The Welkin; T. Wright's Baybrook; E. M. Weld's Weldship; Thomas Hitchcock's Bryndor; W. A. Prime's Belle of Bryn Mawr; Ral Parr's Warlock; J. E. Widener's Duettiste; Ral Parr's Bullseye, and C. K. Harrison's Sea Tale, which duplicated Algie's feat by winning twice in succession in 1922 and 1923.

TRAINER SMART'S CHARGES

Twenty-Six Horses in Public Stable at the Old Benning Track.

Fifteen of These Will Carry the Colors of Samuel Ross During the Season of 1924.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 2.—One of the largest stables which wintered at the old Benning track here is that in charge of Matt Smart. This trainer has charge of a public stable of twenty-six horses belonging to eight different owners.

The largest string in his charge is that of Samuel Ross, the Washington sportsman, which numbers fifteen head and includes jumpers as well as flat racers. There are seven two-year-olds in the Ross band and they are a promising looking aggregation.

Smart has been quite successful in training cross-country horses in years past and he has a number of good jumpers in his charge. He has three cross-country riders under contract. There are A. Barrett, C. Smoot and G. Vass.

He has two horses for W. C. Seipp; three for Mrs. K. Smart, and one each for W. Skinker, the Audley Farm Stable, Frank Herold, J. R. Skinker and B. Harding.

A complete list of the Smart stable, with the exception of Mr. Harding's horse, is given below:

JOHN LOFTUS' MOTHER DEAD

John Loftus, formerly one of the foremost jockeys on the American turf and now trainer of the Oak Ridge Stable, and his brother Frank, who has been acting as his assistant, were in Chicago to attend the funeral of their mother, who died last Saturday.

UNTIDY GRAND LOOKING FILLY

BOWIE GATES CLOSED

Another Postponement Because of Snow-Covered Track.

Original Card for Opening Day Still Stands—Racing to Be Started Today.

BALTIMORE, Md., April 2.—For the second time in as many days racing was declared off at the Prince George County track today. This decision was reached following a conference between general manager James F. O'Hara and track superintendent Pending. The latter got into communication with O'Hara early this morning and stated it would be impossible to clear the racing strip of the heavy fall of snow in time for the first race. Then the announcement was made.

On the other hand, horsemen were not any too anxious to race their charges over the treacherous course, and the postponement gave satisfaction to all concerned.

The weather today was vastly improved over that of yesterday and a continuation of milder type was predicted. The sun melted the snow rapidly, and by tomorrow little trace of the blizzard will remain. The original program, which was carded for the opening day, will stand.

General manager James F. O'Hara was in communication with the Maryland Racing Commission this morning, following an announcement of the second postponement, and asked for a continuation of the meeting, which will take in the vacant time before the opening at Havre de Grace. These two days, Monday and Tuesday, will no doubt be allowed.

There were a few hardy trainers who essayed to send their charges over the snow-covered course, but nothing in the form of a speed gallop was attempted.

A large force of men and snow-removing machines are engaged in clearing away the white mantle. Snow piled up on an average of six inches in depth, and in some places much deeper. The track tomorrow will be a deceptive one. The bottom will naturally be hard, but on top will be sloppy and coated with light mud.

NEW TRACK AT VANCOUVER

Lansdown Park Name of Mile Course in Process of Construction on Lulu Island.

VANCOUVER, B. C., April 2.—London has its Newmarket and Epsom Downs; Toronto its Woodbine; Montreal its Blue Bonnets, and now marching into its own comes Vancouver, B. C. with its Lansdown Park.

The newly launched institution known as The West Coast Jockey Club is going ahead, full steam, with an up-to-date racing plant not to be surpassed by anything in the Dominion of Canada.

Back of this new corporation are ardent sportsmen of the most sincere ambition and not a stone will be left unturned to give the race loving public, as well as horsemen, the very best the market affords.

The first fortunate step this association made was in securing a choice 100 acres of perfect table land on Lulu Island, within ready access of natural transportation via the British Columbia Electric Railway, with an all finished auto highway leading direct to its gates.

To guide all ships there must be a capable pilot and move number two was a giant stroke of good fortune for this new organization when the services of Thomas Wellman as general manager were received. Mr. Wellman needs no introduction to horsemen, as he has been a friend in need to owners, trainers, jockeys, etc., for the past quarter of a century and what he is not acquainted with from all angles of the sport of kings has yet to appear on the horizon.

Lansdown is to be a mile course with a six and a half furlongs chute and, judging from the activity now in progress, one would be led to think that racing was going to be inaugurated within thirty or sixty days instead of July 9, which is the date alloted for the first seven days' meeting. Teams are hauling, saws are buzzing, hammers ringing, and every known implement that is necessary to construct an up-to-date racing plant is in operation.

The grandstand will have a seating capacity of 5,000. The clubhouse is to be equipped with every up-to-date convenience. The paddock is to have roomy box stalls; also an unique walking ring, and the stables are being constructed on the bungalow style.

Considering that Lulu Island soil is most fertile, flowers and shrubbery are being set in unsparingly, and, as time spins along, Lansdown Park will be another spot of beauty in the already picturesque British Columbia.

Here and There on the Turf

Bowie's Postponement.
Handicap to Trainers.
Bedwell's Derby Candidates.
The 1924 Juveniles.

While it was natural there should be bitter disappointment at the necessity of having to declare the opening day of the Bowie meeting off twice, by reason of stress of weather, the Southern Maryland Association did the right thing. It would have been possible to race, but it was not policy to race. Horses have gone through worse weather and over going that was much worse than that at Bowie Tuesday and Wednesday, but it was a weather condition that, aside from being decidedly uncomfortable, brought danger to the conduct of the racing. The snow was blinding and there was danger that accidents might come out of the sport.

In the old days of Guttenberg it would not have been considered a bad day for racing. That is to say there was nothing to prevent the running off of a program. But Guttenberg was the chief reason for the stopping of racing in the state of New Jersey.

James F. O'Hara and his associates are to be congratulated on their decision to defer the opening of their meeting until conditions were auspicious.

The snowstorm was the second that has caused a postponement of racing at Bowie, but it served to demonstrate the tremendous popularity of the sport in Maryland.

The crowd that was on hand to make the stormy journey to the track told of how eager patrons of racing are for the return who were bitterly disappointed at not having a chance to see the horses in action again, and they thought nothing of the weather when it meant the return of racing.

There is no other sport that has a like appeal and just as long as it has that appeal there should be no fear for the future of the American turf.

This same storm, coming when it did, was another and rather a serious menace to the trainers who did not race their charges through the winter months. They had suffered some inconvenience by reason of recent bad weather just when they most desired tightening up of their horses. They have needed possibly just one more real good week to bring them to first-class racing condition. Then along came the bad weather and the following track condition that made trials impossible.

This same condition did not affect the winter campaigners in the same way, for they really needed the enforced rest. They had been raced into seasoned condition, and to lay off for a day or two might readily give them a rest that would be beneficial.

Just what effect all of it will have will be shown in the early days of the Bowie meeting.

The conditions have by no means halted training operations and some of the horses have gone along at a surprisingly good pace considering the conditions.

This is particularly true of H. G. Bedwell's Senator Norris. He is at Pimlico, and he worked a mile in 1:46 before the course of the Maryland Jockey Club became entirely snowbound. It was a decidedly impressive move and right in line with what the good son of Cudgel and Cypher Code has been showing in his preparation.

Bedwell has not been hurrying his star, but he is at this time well advanced and it is a long time since Maryland had a candidate for the Preakness Stakes and the Kentucky Derby that has attracted a like amount of attention. Should he continue to train as he has already, he will beyond question be a truly important factor in the rich races to which he is eligible. He has all the ways of a long route traveler and at the same time is a colt of extreme speed. He has grown and improved since he went into retirement last fall and good judges are beginning to take him seriously in the two big $50,000 races for which he is being pointed by Bedwell.

The present plan is that Senator Norris will start in the Chesapeake Stakes at Havre de Grace, and it is unlikely that he will be seen in public before that time. The Chesapeake Stakes come at a time when it affords a good line on Preakness Stakes candidates and should Senator Norris give a good account of himself in that race it will further increase his importance in any consideration of his chances in the greater races.

When racing swings over to Havre de Grace, at the close of the present Bowie meeting, many of the horses that have trained on Long Island will make their first racing appearance of the year. By that time weather will have become more settled and at the same time the horses will be further advanced in their preparation.

Woods Garth will have a division of the big J. S. Cosden string at Bowie, but the main division will not be seen at the races until the later meetings, and some of them are being reserved for what is to be offered at Pimlico.

William Garth, head of the Garth clan, has come from Virginia with thirty horses that he has quartered at Pimlico, and the chief interest is in this branch of the stable.

The genial "Uncle Billy" brought his horses in during the snowstorm of Tuesday, but they all shipped well and are a distinguished looking band. They showed a deal of exercise before they left the farm and it is a sure thing they will bring new fame to the silk.

While it will be some time before a good line can be had on the new two-year-olds, it seems now that the 1924 crop will be a thoroughly good one. The winter racing did not produce any outstanding two-year-old development, as is often the case, but the young thoroughbreds that have been preparing for racing at the various training grounds are rich in promise.

As a general proposition the youngsters are of goodly size and have shown well in their training. Naturally a racing line will not be available for a considerable time, but as far as looks and general condition are concerned, there are many individuals that have all the looks of embryo champions. Garth has a truly good-looking band that are to bear the silks of J. S. Cosden, and the Harry Payne Whitney two-year-olds that have been trained at Benning by Fred Hopkins have attracted a deal of attention.

It will take actual racing to give a line and the best will not be uncovered for some time yet, but enough has been shown to warrant the prediction that the two-year-old races will not lack in interest, and before August it is a sure thing that some really good ones will be in action.

Jockey Lawrence, who has been the premier at Ascot Park, has been engaged by Pat Dunne to ride in the East. The stars of the saddle in the West at the present time are Helgesen, Fuller, Dominick, Lyne and Spencer, while Shaw, Redfern, Burns and McCue head the list on the eastern tracks.

The Tennessee Derby, which has been run annually since 1884, will be contested for tomorrow. Captain Sam Brown's formidable representatives, Proceeds and Conjuror, should prove easy victors, as the only other entries are Samurai and Geronimo, both untried colts. It is not the first time this race has been contested by such a meager field and its history is full of surprises as, for instance, when the outsider Buckvidere overthrew two such cracks as Typhoon II. and Algol in 1897.

Each passing year brings its crop of absurdly named two-year-olds and 1904 furnishes no exception. Among the names allowed this year by registrar Wheeler can be found such names as: Disproportionableness, Belle of Hungry Hill, Sardine Box, Little Pearl of Gallantry, Cypripedium, T. Jo, Follies Dramatiques, Lady of Perry County and many others which have no reference to their breeding and are meaningless to the general public.

Several Washington reform organizations have formally asked the district attorney of the District of Columbia to institute proceedings with the idea of testing the legality of race track betting as carried on at the Benning track. The district attorney has promised to take the matter up, but not until after the present meeting. The reform people, led by W. F. Crafts, however, intend to keep after the bookmakers until all betting has been stopped.

BELMONT'S STEEPLECHASES

three; W. J. Salmon, twenty-two; J. S. Cosden, twenty; Queen City Stable, eighteen; Middleneck Farm, eighteen; Somerset Stable, eleven; L. Waterbury, ten; Glen Riddle Stable, nine, and Oak Ridge Stable, eight.

There is said to be many fine jumpers among the importations, especially those bought by the well-known rider and trainer, R. H. Crawford for the Queen City Stable, the half-dozen secured by McCreery, for the Middleneck Stable, and those brought over by Messrs. Read, Strassburger and Bostwick. That they will have their work cut out for them to lower the colors of such old favorites as Duettiste, Sweepment, Sea Tale, Dan IV., Bullseye, Damask, Letterman, Houdini and Brigadier General, whose qualities have been tested on many a hard fought field is the contention of the experts. Bar Gold, the erstwhile companion of Papyrus, is another foreigner of which much is expected by the Somerset Stable this year in the races through the field.

Conspicuous among the newcomers bred in this country that should do well this year are Cherry Pie, Broomster, Mark Twain, Purity, Autumn Bells and Hea, all of which have pretty good records on the flat. Cherry Pie is the holder of the track record for a mile at Belmont Park, having been timed in 1:35⅗ on September 3rd of last year. Broomster is a winner of class, while the others named have good performances to their credit, especially Hea, which was thought one of the most promising three-year-olds of the season of 1922, when he was only beaten a short head by Pillory for the Preakness Stakes. He went wrong and was put to jumping. Being of the right type he should succeed over the jumps. As he is by Sea King, he is bred right, as the get of that horse, like those by Huon, take to the cross-country game naturally.

All but the Brook Handicap Steeplechase will be run during the spring session. The Charles L. Appleton Memorial Cup and the Brook both received a very high-class entry, but the autumn classic, as was to be expected, tops the spring event slightly. This is largely due to the fact that a number of horses will not be thoroughly acclimatized and trainers will not want to hurry them in their engagements. Sufficient good material, however, is available in both races to make them corking contests, worthy of the sporting spirit which brought them into being.

The comparative table of the stakes and the entries follows:

Stake.	1923.	1924.
Charles L. Appleton Memorial Cup	58	61
Grand National	39	53
International Steeplechase	60	71
Meadowbrook Steeplechase	53	57
The Brook Handicap Steeplechase	72	85

BARDALID, away fast, was shuffled rearward soon after the start, but gained rapidly after turning for home into a fast-going second. BRIMSTONE set the early pace and after relinquishing the lead made a game finish while tiring, but barely managed to outstay PRESERVATOR. The latter had no mishaps and ran a good race. LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 2.—The three-year-old colt Silvergrift, in the stable of Theo. E.
